Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

We are in the season of Lent. It's a time that the Church provides us with to get back to our original innocence, to recapture our lost relationships, to establish new friendships and to indulge in genuine love more vigorously than before. When we do love people in abundance, the inner happiness that it brings along, is inexplicable. Lent is a time to try doing that, if we haven't done it any time so far.

It's a time to confront temptations, fight and win over them. Temptations are there to test our faith(fulness). God is continually and steadily faithful to us. How are we to God and to one another? Do we give up on our spouse, children, siblings, colleagues, and friends at the first instance of their unfaithfulness? Do we give people a second chance? Or a third or even a fourth? 'Forgive unconditionally' is the command of Jesus to us, as he would do in every setting.

Lent is a time of intense prayer. It's also a time to mortify senses so we can experience hunger and lack of other pleasurable things in life. A positive awareness of people struggling in their daily lives should make us reach out to them in whatever way possible.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
