Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

At transfiguration, according to Mark (9: 7), from the cloud a voice came, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." It is one of the most important moments in Jesus' life wherein God recognizes him as God's beloved Son. Furthermore, God the Father acknowledges him as the universal teacher. Listen to him for he is the master par excellence. In other words, from now on, the entire human society should listen to his voice whenever they are in doubts and confusions.

These days, our society and perhaps the whole world is going through so many crises of moral judgements. Often, we wonder whether the law makers are on the right track or not when it comes to preserving the uprightness and moral integrity of legal systems. More often, we are caught up with our political identity on one side, and the gospel values and Christian principles on the other. It is not uncommon to see many Christians clinging on to their political affinity even to the extent of throwing away their gospel principles in order to be politically correct.

Lent is a time for a 'soul search'. It is a time to rediscover the lost values, shattered principles and thrown away morality. Let us "listen to him". He will certainly speak to us in the silence of our hearts. And if we don't understand what he tells us, let us seek for clarification from those who are able to guide us. For that to happen, we need to be humble and open minded.

Yours in Christ Jesus,

Fr. C. P. Varghese

Pastor
