Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

At the northern gate of Jerusalem temple sat a beggar, Bartimaeus by name. He heard the tramp of feet. He asked what was happening and who was passing. He was told that it was Jesus. There and then he set up an uproar to attract Jesus' attention to him. To those listening to Jesus' teaching as he walked, the uproar was an offence. They tried to silence Bartimaeus, but no one was going to take from him his chance to escape from his world of darkness, and he cried with such violence and importunity that the procession stopped, and he was brought to Jesus.

We see here the sheer persistence of Bartimaeus. Nothing would stop his clamor to come face to face with Jesus. His response to the call of Jesus was immediate and eager, so eager that he cast off his hindering cloak to run to Jesus the more quickly. He knew precisely what he wanted--his sight. Too often I am afraid that our admiration for Jesus is a vague attraction.

In the end there is a precious touch. Bartimaeus may have been a beggar by the wayside but he was a man of gratitude. Having received his sight, he followed Jesus. He did not selfishly go on his way when his need was met. He began with need, went on to gratitude, and finished with loyalty--and that is a perfect summary of the stages of discipleship.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
