Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

Today, the Church celebrates the Feast of Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe. After he was crucified, Pilate placed a nameboard above Jesus' head: 'INRI' (Jesus, the Nazarene, King of the Jews). It was a very scornful nameboard. But it turned out to be the most prophetic one. Jesus indeed is the King of the Universe.

The man who was crucified at his right side noticed the greatness, the gentleness, and the majestic appearance of Jesus. He had observed that Jesus even responded to the women on the way who were feeling sympathy for him not to cry for him. Such a great personality of Jesus was observed by that good thief. Therefore, he prayed to him: 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.' Jesus responded to him, "Tonight you will be with me in Paradise."

What is Paradise? The etymological meaning of the word 'paradise' which is 'old fenced garden' lies in a Persian concept where the Sultan used to have a leisure walk with anyone whom he loved. From morning till evening, they walked together in the garden, spoke to each other and had meal together. It was considered a great honor for the individuals who had the opportunity of spending a day in the company of the Sultan. So, what did Jesus mean to say to that repentant thief? maybe he said to him, 'Hereafter you will walk with me'.

Walking with Jesus is what it means to be in his Kingdom. The inverse of it should be true too. If we want to be in God's Kingdom, we should be willing to walk with Christ. It is his steps that we should follow. It is his dreams that we should dream. It is his mission that we strive to achieve. Thus when the whole world is caught up with doing his will, then we can truly say that we are in his Kingdom and Christ is our King.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
