Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

It was not easy for the Jewish community to believe in a God who loves and forgives unconditionally. The belief so far up to Jesus' time was in a god who gives many laws and regulations and demands that they be followed. But here is Jesus showing us the real face of God – a compassionate, forgiving, tenderly loving God. And when we are invited to believe in Jesus, we are actually led to believe in the true God that Jesus shows us, namely His Father.

As we have noted last week, in order that we find the true god, we need to get rid of our false gods. They could be anything such as our selfishness, undue attachment to worldly pleasures, comforts, craving for authority and wealth, lust and even our blind adherence to a political identity. Unless we are willing to throw them all away from our hearts, minds and lives, there is no possibility that we ever find the true and real God.

May this Lenten season help us primarily to recognize that may be we all have our false gods whom we worship knowingly or unknowingly. Secondly may we make efforts to worship the true and loving God.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
