Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday, a day on which we enter the most holy time of the liturgical year. The people of Jerusalem shouted 'Hosanna' a word which in Hebrew means 'save' or 'rescue'. Amidst a joyful, celebrative event if they did plead with Jesus to save them, there at least two presuppositions for our consideration: 1) They are in dire need of liberation from an evil reign and 2) Jesus, an ordinary wandering carpenter should be someone who is recognized now as their savior, messiah. Therefore, they welcome him to Jerusalem by spreading their outer garments on his path, which is a sign of their total surrender and submission to him.

Interestingly, Jesus' choice of a donkey to sit on, reminds us that he does not come to us as a warrior in a battlefield, but he is the prince of peace. In a tension filled world of ours where turmoil and commotion are part of daily affairs, do we care to acknowledge Jesus as the one who can redeem us and bring us peace?

Every time we participate in Holy Eucharist we repeat the same words that were uttered that day by those who ushered him to Jerusalem: "Hosanna; Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord." Do we mean what we proclaim? The participation in the commemoration of his passion, death and resurrection during this week should enable us not only to enter more deeply into the salvific mysteries but also to realize that the glory and honor is a result of our suffering. The crown will be ours if we are willing to carry the cross. Easter surely will arrive after Good Friday.

Yours in Christ Jesus,

Fr. C. P. Varghese

Pastor
