Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

"I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world" (John 17:15).

There was a time when it was considered that this world is an evil space. And what we require to do as disciples of Jesus is to run away from this world in order that we enter into the spiritual realm of God. This thought has run its course for we know that this world is a beautiful place since it has been created by God our Father. However, as a necessary byproduct of goodness, there is the evil spirit all around us. So, Jesus prays for us who are supposedly his beloved disciples that we may not fall prey to the temptations of the evil one.

One of the saddest things that happen around us is that there are people working with evil intent. Sometimes, despite knowing something as evil we dare to indulge in, experiment with, and look for momentary pleasures. It is in such moments when we are weak, we need the grace of God. Writing to the Corinthians, Paul says: And He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore, I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties, for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong (2 Corinthians 12:9-10).

Let us support each other so that we can overcome temptations with God's grace and pledge our loyalty to Jesus Christ our risen Lord.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
