Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

Food, Clothing and Shelter are the basic amenities of human living. But clothing and shelter can somehow be compromised, but not food. So, it was not surprising that Jesus taught his disciples to pray: "Give us this day our daily bread!" Nothing else is more essential. The most anxious thoughts of humans have been always whether their daily bread would be assured to them or not.

Further, food is the right of every human being. It is not the generosity of the haves to the have nots. We can recall here the incident of the disciples of Jesus being accused of plucking grains of wheat as they walked and how Jesus justified it by quoting the episode of David from Old Testament, namely how they ate the sacred bread from the sanctuary, which was the right only of the priests to consume. There is even a phrase that is often quoted: You cannot preach the gospel to an empty stomach." Jesus was therefore afraid that the five thousand and more of his listeners would fall down on the way back home and die if they were not given food to eat. So, he multiplied five loaves to feed them all.

Food is somehow the most expressive language of love and friendship. So, Jesus left food (bread and wine) as the symbol (sacrament) of his love for his disciples. Today, as we celebrate Corpus Christi (the Solemnity of the Precious Body and Blood of Jesus) let us ask for the grace that we may become more aware of the significance of this great mystery of our redemption.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
