Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,

In today's gospel (Mark 6:1-6), we see Jesus going to his hometown Nazareth and teaching in the synagogue. His teaching was received not with respect but with contempt. Why? It's because he went there accompanied by his disciples, just as any other Jewish Rabbi would do! This was something that the people of his neighborhood could not tolerate for they had seen him growing up just being the son of an ordinary carpenter. So, we are told, "they took offence at him" for his appearance as a Rabbi scandalized them. Familiarity breeds (mistaken) contempt! As a result, Jesus could not do any mighty works such as healing the sick, feeding the hungry etc. in his own hometown for the atmosphere was very sickly over there.

We must remember that none can be healed unless they have a desire to be healed. God cannot work any miracle if the humans resist God's entry into their lives. Not even the most eloquent preaching will ever bear fruits when there is bias, and prejudice precipitated in the minds and hearts of the hearers. There can be no peace-making in the wrong atmosphere. If people have come together to hate, they will hate. If people have come together to refuse to understand, they will misunderstand. If people have come together to see no other point of view but their own, they will see no other. But if people have come together, loving Christ, and seeking to love each other, even those who are most widely separated can come together in him.

As disciples of Jesus, our responsibility is to help Jesus work in our midst, preach to our hearts and make reconciliation in our families and society possible. But if we are not doing that, then the opposite becomes inevitable – namely hindering the work of Jesus in and around us. It is good to make an examination of our own consciences to find out whether we are helping Jesus or blocking him.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
