Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,
Jesus asked his disciples, "But who do you say that I am?" And Peter answered, "You are the Messiah" (Mark 8:29). Peter was able to recognize in Jesus, the Son of God, the Anointed One, the Savior whom his generation and their ancestors were waiting for centuries.

It all depends upon the answer that we come up with, to the question that we are posed, "Who do you say that I am?" Jesus time and again repeats this one single and unique question to each of us. The answer is very important. We cannot cook up any response to him. It needs to come from our gut level, for if we haven't experienced Jesus' presence in our lives so far, how will we ever be able to answer him? But the moment we come up with a response, then it's a whole lot of different world that we find ourselves in.

Despite Peter's declaration that Jesus indeed was the Messiah, he still failed Jesus by denying him three times. This could happen to all of us too. The temptations around us in the present world we are in, are so heavily coming down on us that we hardly can have strength to continually proclaim that he is indeed our Messiah. But nothing is impossible with God's grace. Peter gathered courage and strength and realizing his mistake came back to the Lord. Change is never too late.

At a horizontal level of our existence we find ourselves continually relating with those around us. We should be asking the same question to each other, "Who do you say that I am?" It is important to get the right answer as it is equally important to give back to others the right answer. Everything depends upon that one single answer. Relationships have been shattered because persons have stumbled upon the wrong answers repeatedly. Let us ask the Lord for grace to respond wisely to this unique question at every moment of our lives so we can have fulfilling lives lived out in the company of our near and dear ones.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
