Dear Sisters, Brothers and Children in Jesus Christ,
We are entering into the most important week in the liturgical calendar of the Church. Today we celebrate the solemn entry of Jesus Christ, our Savior into the city of Jerusalem. The crowd shouted out, "Hosanna in the highest". Hosanna means 'Save us now'. The people recognized in Jesus their savior. Have we recognized him as our savior? If yes, do we care to proclaim him so, not as much through our words as in our actions?

Coming Thursday, we commemorate two sacraments that Jesus instituted, namely, Eucharist, and Priesthood. More than that, it is the day that Jesus gave us the greatest law of loving one another. He showed it symbolically by washing the feet of his disciples. How willing are we to wash the feet of each other, especially of those who are subordinate to us?

Good Friday we meditate on the passion, crucifixion and death of Jesus Christ. Again, it is the day of the triumph of the cross. Cross, a symbol of defeat, contempt and shame turns out to be a sign of victory, glory and pride. It is in Christ's crucifixion and death that salvation has come to the whole of creation.

During Easter vigil, we go through the salvation history once again and the narrative of our redemption should lead us to bring that salvation to whole of creation around us, not just to our kith and kin, or country men and women. As Christ's disciples, we should set out to saving the whole world.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
