Dear Sisters, Brothers and Children in Jesus Christ,

The faith and hope of the people of Israel, placed in Yahweh their God, resulted in their liberation. The first reading of today tells us of the preparation and waiting for their own release and liberation. In the responsorial psalm, we voice our need for placing our continued trust in our God. In the second reading, we have the author of letter to the Hebrews expressing his view that Faith as "the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen" (Heb 11:1). The Christians who are the descendants of the Jews are to follow the path of their ancestors starting with Abraham, the father of faith. In the Gospel, Jesus challenges his disciples to trust the Father's promise to give them eternal happiness in His kingdom. But they are to be prepared at all times, because the Son of Man will come at an unexpected hour, either at the moment of their death or at the end of the world, whichever is earlier. Using the master-thief parable, Jesus warns us to be on our guard so that the thief (the devil), may not steal our treasure of Divine grace or our relationship with God by his temptations. Using the master-servant parable, Jesus reminds us always to do the will of God by obeying Jesus' commandment of love and offering humble and sacrificial service to others. Let us keep our personal relationship with our God by growing in faith and holiness.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
