Dear Sisters, Brothers and Children in Jesus Christ,
There is a strange Math of Holy Trinity which we will never comprehend fully. That is 1+1+1=1. It is a mystery that will never be fully grasped. If it is a problem, it will never be solved by our limited human intelligence. Yet, we know the conclusion that we can arrive at. The strange Math concludes that God is a community. Further there is perfect communion among the three persons of Godhead.

The Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit are eternally communicating with each other.

The New Testament gives clear teachings on the Holy Trinity. At the Annunciation, God the Father sends His angel to Mary, God the Holy Spirit overshadows her, and God the Son becomes incarnate in her womb. At the baptism of Jesus, when the Son receives baptism from John the Baptist, the Father's Voice is heard, and the Holy Spirit appears as a Dove. At the Ascension, Jesus gives the missionary command to his disciples to baptize those who believe, in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In John, chapters 15-18, we have a detailed account of Jesus' teaching of the role of each Person of the Holy Trinity: a) God the Father creates and provides for His creatures. b) God the Son redeems us and reconciles us with God. c) God the Holy Spirit sanctifies us, strengthens us, teaches us and guides us to God.

Let us respect ourselves and others because everyone is the temple of the Holy Spirit where all Three Persons of the Holy Trinity abide. Let us have the firm conviction that the Trinitarian God abides in us, that God is the Source of our hope, courage and strength and that God is our final destination. Let us practice the Trinitarian relationship of love and unity in the family relationships of father, mother and children because by our baptism we have become children of God and members of God's Trinitarian family. Let us practice the I-God-my neighbor vertical and horizontal Trinitarian relationship in society by loving God living in others.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
