Dear Sisters, Brothers and Children in Jesus Christ,

Every year on the first Sunday during Lenten season, we meditate upon the temptations of Jesus Christ. Regarding Jesus' temptations, the Catechism of the Catholic Church states:

The Gospels speak of a time of solitude for Jesus in the desert immediately after his baptism by John. Driven by the Spirit into the desert, Jesus remains there for forty days without eating; he lives among wild beasts, and angels minister to him. At the end of this time Satan tempts him three times, seeking to compromise his filial attitude toward God. Jesus rebuffs these attacks, which recapitulate the temptations of Adam in Paradise and of Israel in the desert, and the devil leaves him "until an opportune time..." The temptation in the desert shows Jesus, the humble Messiah, who triumphs over Satan by his total adherence to the plan of salvation willed by the Father (CCC 538).

It is Jesus who was fully human that was put to test. More than a physical experience, we should look at his temptations as happening inside of him, mentally and spiritually. The agony is generated by the conflicting responses that he could give to the Father. But he chose to go the path of the cross and suffering. In our lives too, it is possible that we are tempted to deviate from the way of the cross looking for glamorous and attractive areas. Unfortunately, they often end up as temporarily pleasurable. Can we not look for lasting happiness and joy? For that to happen we need to overcome temptations with the grace of God.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
