Dear Sisters, Brothers and Children in Jesus Christ,

Today's first reading tells us how the apostles waited in prayer for the coming of the Spirit Who would enable them to preach and bear witness to Christ in spite of persecutions. In the second reading, Peter challenges his early Christian audience and us to view and accept suffering as an opportunity to be more fully one with Jesus. The Gospel gives us the beginning of the "High Priestly Prayer" in which Jesus prays for himself and for protection and unity for his disciples. In the second part, Jesus commends his apostles to the Father and prays for them because they have accepted the word of God and acknowledged his Divine origin as the Messiah. They have put their trust in Jesus and His Father. Jesus prays that they may act as agents of truth and love in the world, that they may be protected from evil, and that they may be one.

We need to center our Christian life on prayer. Christian prayer has forms for individual Christians and for communities. These include individual prayer, the prayer of the liturgy, and para-liturgical prayers/services, such as Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. There are also different kinds of prayer, including vocal prayers, the Rosary, and contemplative prayer. In the final analysis, prayer means getting into contact with God — listening to God and talking to God. We should try to set aside some time each day to spend with God in prayer. We need to glorify Christ by the lives we live. When we live ethical lives, that is, lives of integrity in which our performance is in harmony with our profession of Faith, we are glorifying Jesus. We glorify God by our prayer-life and our faithful observance of the Lord's Day. We glorify Jesus by humble and selfless service to Him in our brothers and sisters. Finally, we glorify God by speaking kind, merciful, loving and encouraging words.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
