Dear Sisters, Brothers and Children in Jesus Christ,
In today's gospel, as Jesus is saying goodbye to his disciples, he sees them sad and scared. They all feel they are living the last hours with their Master. What will happen when he is gone? Who will guide and defend them? Jesus wants to encourage them by his final words.

The great desire of Jesus is that His Good News that he carried from the Father will not be forgotten. His followers must keep alive the ideal of the Father's humanizing "kingdom of God" of which he has spoken so much. "Whoever loves me will stay true to my words ... whoever does not love me, do not keep them."

After twenty centuries, what have we done with the Gospel of Jesus? Do we keep it faithfully or do we care only for our own interests? Do we welcome Jesus in our hearts or do we forget him? Do we present his message authentically or hide it with our own doctrines?

"I give you my peace" he says. He wants to live with the same peace we have seen in him, welling up from his intimate union with the Father. His peace will blossom in our hearts if we accept the Spirit of Jesus. We must never lose that peace. Jesus insists: "Do not be troubled or afraid".

After twenty centuries, why does our fear about the future paralyze us? Why so much suspicion against modern society? There are many people who are hungry for God today. Are we able to satiate their hunger? We will be able to do it if we are faithful to Jesus and to his Gospel.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
