Dear Sisters, Brothers and Children in Jesus Christ,
During our Sunday worship, we have been listening to the gospel narrative of Luke in this liturgical year. In chapter 19, we see Jesus entering Jericho and then reaching Jerusalem. As he passes through, we are introduced to Zacchaeus. He is a chief tax collector, and he is rich. Tax collectors, are among the marginalized ones who cleave to Jesus in Luke. They are among the lost whom he comes to seek and save.

Luke often looks at the rich with suspicion, because wealth is a problem and a danger. So the story of Zacchaeus actually begins on a note of ambiguity. Will this be another tax collector who leaves everything and follows like Levi, or will this be another rich man saddened by the claims that the kingdom makes on him and his wealth? Jesus finds Zacchaeus on the tree and invites himself home with him, and Zacchaeus welcomes him rejoicing. This occasion is met with grumbling among those who observe that Jesus is hanging around with sinners. There is similar grumbling among the Pharisees and the scribes about Jesus' association with sinners and tax collectors at Chapter 15:2. And then Jesus gives them the three parables of the lost and found sheep, coin, and son. And here too a lost one is about to be claimed.

Zacchaeus resolves the issue of his wealth by saying that he is giving half of his possessions to the poor and paying back those he has defrauded four times what he has taken. Zacchaeus' statements mean that this commitment is ongoing, not something he will do only once. How about you and me? Do we have any statement of transformation for better to make to Jesus, Our Lord?

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. C. P. Varghese
Pastor
