"I am often asked, especially by young people, why I became a priest. Maybe some of you would like to ask the same question. Let me try briefly to reply. I must begin by saying that it is impossible to explain entirely. For it remains a mystery, even to myself. How does one explain the ways of God? Yet, I know that, at a certain point in my life, I became convinced that Christ was saying to me what he had said to thousands before me: 'Come, follow me!' There was a clear sense that what I heard in my heart was no human voice, nor was it just an idea of my own. Christ was calling me to serve him as a priest.

And you can probably tell that I am deeply grateful to God for my vocation to the priesthood. Nothing means more to me or gives me greater joy than to celebrate Mass each day and to serve God's people in the Church. That has been true ever since the day of my ordination as a priest. Nothing has ever changed this, not even becoming Pope." Pope Saint John Paul II

In the academic year 2019/2020, the diocese has:

- 7 young men in priestly formation –
 - Deacon Dan Gilbert (Scottsbluff)
 - Dillon Spies (Grand Island)
 - Chas Canfield (Grand Island)
 - John Rohweder (Grand Island)
 - Noah Huddleston (Kearney)
 - Liam Murphy (Kearney)
 - Adam Bauer (St. Paul)

- 1 ordination to priesthood –
 - Deacon Dan Gilbert on June 5, 2020 in Grand Island

We outsource the formation of our men to various seminaries in the region. The cost of this for each man in formation is $40,000 per year. Thank you for your generosity in contributing to the formation of our men!

We also have 2 young women in formation for religious life from our diocese:

- Maria Glaser with the Missionaries of Charity
- Mary Irvine with the Franciscan Sisters of the Eucharist.
