The Catholic Newman Center at the University of Nebraska at Kearney has partnered with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students to reach out to more students than possible before. The five FOCUS missionaries assigned to our campus share Jesus with the students on campus. They meet them where they are: in the dorms, on the field, at the student union and in every corner of campus. Through outreach events and one-on-one conversations, students make meaningful connections with members of Christ's body — growing in friendships, sharing life and coming together in authentic community. The missionaries participate in community life at the Newman Center and beyond. They work on reaching out to people on campus to grow in friendship, share life together, and create authentic community. From there they dive deep in relationship forming Bible studies, praying together, and participating in the sacraments. The missionaries are then able to raise up students in faith to become leaders in evangelization and to serve others and missionary disciples, leading others to Christ.
